DUO BIRD KURTZGESAGT VIBE (COMMUNICATE BY MORSE -YLVIS BGM)

VOICE:

Think about it, you kind of want to learn morse code. There's no need to explain why. There's this lingering sensation in all of us, telling us that this type of communication would make us feel powerful and spy-like.

VOICE: (CONT'D)

So what are you going to do? Hire a babysitter and spend nights learning this very outmoded, and very unnecessary form of communication? We've all tried that, but active self-studying is literally ego death, and we like your ego. Therefore, we introduce "Morse calls": The efficient way to passively learn morse code.

DRACULA FLOW IPHONE IN SETTINGS AND GETTING CALLS

Dracula phone is him, will continue to be him. Phone opens settings and dracula rings

VOICE:

We created a feature, allowing your phone to vibrate incoming Caller IDs in morse. With this setting enabled, you'll slowly gain the magical power of wirelessly knowing who's giving you a ringaloo. Which means, no more retina degradation and no more annoyance from your Digital Assistant. Subliminal learning by exposure has never been this easy.

VOICE: (CONT'D)

With plenty of breaks between calls, you're ensured to never be information fatigued. But if you're yearning for more morse code learning, Duolingo got you covered with our brand new morse code course!

DUOLINGO ON THE DRACULA FLOW IPHONE: COURSE AND TASKS N NOTES

VOICE:

Here you learn history and fun facts about morse code, while also completing fun tasks writing in morse. And if you're feeling expressive, go freestyle your thoughts in morsenote!

Strobe light eeeeeee Sinneslöchen. Wendy's response. Rick roll eller bad apple

VOICE: (CONT'D)

When you're acquainted with our revolutionary morse code keyboard, guess what? The keyboard's functional in any app! Send morse to all your friends!

VOICE: (CONT'D)

If your friend is a smart watch user, they'll get your messages sent directly to their wrists via vibrations!

Guy sends a morse message to someone who is talking to another: someone says "he's behind me, isn't he?" because guy send "bhnd u" in morse".

VOICE: (CONT'D)

Get in on the action and join Morse Code Call Club, there's no remorse in learning morse. Go download Duolingo!

END.

*OUTTAKE VOICE:

Think about it, you kind of want to learn morse code. There's no need to explain why. We know using this language will make you feel powerful and spy-like.

know when you send them messages. Because the smart watch will vibrate giving your friends magical abilities Morse messages will be translated into vibrations your friends will smart watch morse codes will be transferred directly into their arm by vibrations.

OUTAKE VOICE:

Start learning morse code, with morse calls.

OUTAKE VOICE: (CONT'D)

We created a feature that converts all Caller ID's into morse vibrations. Now, when you get an incoming call, your phone will automatically vibrate their name or number, giving you the power of wireless knowledge, without ever looking at a screen, or hearing your Digital Assistant speak. Subliminal exposure learning has never been this easy.

ALT VOICE:

If your friend is smart watch user, they can even read your messages through vibrations on their wrist.
